Thank You

We, the members of the Yearbook Staff, would like to extend our appreciation to the following people for their much needed help and support:

Fran Pelletier — for keeping us out of trouble

John Carrier — for putting up with our whims

Ken Perlow — for his moral support and a very special thanks to Paul Banevicius for his outstanding artwork and to Nancy Gendron for her photography at a minute's notice.

And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first, the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.
Then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover,
Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad
Made to his mistress' eyebrow. Then a soldier,
Full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard,
Jealous in honor, sudden and quick in quarrel,
Seeking the bubble reputation
Even in the cannon's mouth. And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe and beard of formal cut,
Full of wise saws and modern instances;
And so he plays his part. The sixth age shifts
Into the lean and slippered pantaloon,
With spectacles on nose and pouch on side;
His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide
For his shrunk shank, and his big manly voice,
Turning again toward childish treble, pipes
And whistles in his sound. Last scene of all,
That ends this strange eventful history,
Is second childishness and mere oblivion,
Sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything.

Dedication

We, the graduating Class of 1978, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. James Lightbody.

Through his instruction, support, and unselfish devotion he has made our four years in high school memorable.

The interest which he has shown in both scholastic and athletic endeavors has been recognized and appreciated by all who know him. He has always lent his support to all of the school athletics and he has always done an outstanding job coaching the golf team. He was always willing to take on the responsibility of chaperoning for us. Day after day he patiently instructed us in mathematics. It was a difficult and a sometimes tedious subject but he managed it with humor and flair.

He was not only our teacher but he was also our friend. His patience and understanding was valued by many. We dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Lightbody in thanks and admiration for all that he has done.

Perpetual Youth

All who have meditated on the art of governing mankind have been convinced that the fate of empires depends on the education of the youth.
— Aristotle (384-322 B.C.)

ADMINISTRATION

To the Class of 1978: It truly seems like only yesterday that we welcomed the Great Class of '78 to Westborough High School, and yet four years have passed into Eternity.

We recall telling you, in the Fall of 1974, that Westborough High School was YOUR school — the students' school. Your school is indeed better today then it was in 1974, and you have indeed helped to make it so. The spirit which you have shown, as evidenced by your never-to-be surpassed feat of winning four straight Booster Week competitions, is both noteworthy and commendable.

And now you stand on the threshold of Graduation and you are about to leave the portals of your school. On behalf of all of the faculty, congratulations to each of you on having achieved this status. In the future, come back to your school to share your experiences with this same faculty — you'll find that they will be interested.

Good luck and God speed in whatever the future holds.

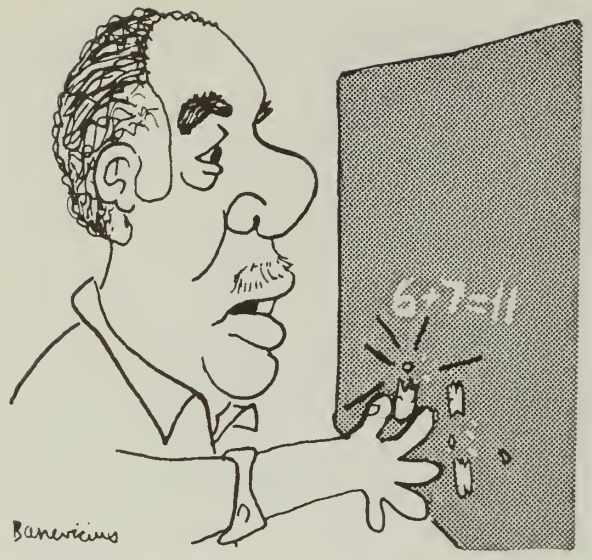
CLASS 1978 YEARBOOK MESSAGE

Our lifetime, for whatever span we are granted, must be used to build, with the help of our God-given talents, an unselfish, loving, humble and productive member of the Society of Mankind.

If these talents are not used to the fullest extent, then we have taken part in the greatest waste of all time.

R. W. Kirby



For he, by geometric scale,
Could take the size of pots of ale; . . .
And wisely tell what hour o' th' day
The clock doth strike, by algebra.

Science appears but what in truth she is,
Not as our glory and our absolute boast,
But as a succedaneum, and a prop
To our infirmity . . .
. . . that false secondary power
By which we multiply distinctions, then
Deem that our puny boundaries are things
That we perceive, and not that we have made.

Fred, Jenny, Alan

I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethro'
Gleams that untravell'd world whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!
As tho' to breathe were life! Life piled on life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains; but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things; and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself,
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge life a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.
